

HOW TO ADD A URL TO A CLASS NOTE from Faculty Center

TRAINING & SUPPORT TEAM
Academic Support Resources
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

What is it? A URL linking to additional class information may be added as a Class Note. The URL could point to information available on a departmental website, class website, or other location. Students and staff will see the URL in the Class Search results, giving them easy access to additional information about the class.

ACCESS

The screenshot shows the MyU.umn.edu homepage. The 'Teaching' tab is selected in the left-hand navigation menu. The main content area displays a list of classes for the Fall 2014 semester. At the bottom of the list, there is a link labeled 'Faculty Center'.

1. Log in to MyU.umn.edu with your Internet ID and password.
2. Click on the Teaching tab.

3. Click on the Faculty Center link at the bottom to enter the Faculty Center.

ADDING THE URL

The screenshot shows the Faculty Center interface for David Clayton. The 'My Schedule' section is active, displaying a table of classes for Fall 2014. Each class entry includes a 'URL' link.

Description

History of early modern globalization through one of its most cosmopolitan actors, the pirate. Geographical focus in the Caribbean basin. Networks of capitalism, migration, empire, and nascent nationalism. Global phenomena through marginalized participants--pirates, maroons, rebels, criminals, paupers, and privateers. Alternate historical narratives on emergence of the modern world.
